In addition to the Dance Festival, Presenting Denver will offer Master Classes taught by 2022 Festival artists leading up to the Dance Festival at studios in and around the Denver area. Participants will have the opportunity to dive into the choreographic styles of our 2022 Festival Artists, and forge relationships with our community. To explore the Master Classes, please visit our calendar here.

Tickets for the 2022 Presenting Denver Dance Festival can be purchased on the Newman Center website at pd.newmantix.com, over the phone at 303.871.7720, or at the Newman Center box office. The box office is currently only open for in-person sales the night of shows if you are not a DU student/staff member.

About Presenting Denver: Presenting Denver is a 501(c)(3) organization based in Denver, Colorado. Presenting Denver was founded in 2013 with a commitment to define Denver as an innovative dance hub. Linking education, accessibility and the performances of dance, Presenting Denver's mission is to support the art of dance through increased public exposure and the appreciation of movement as an innovative art form. Our vision is to inspire individuals to connect and reconsider their world through the art of movement. Additional information can be found here.

About The Robert and Judi Newman Center for the Performing Arts: Opened in 2002, the Robert and Judi Newman Center for the Performing Arts at the University of Denver is a multi-disciplinary arts venue that provides innovative, diverse, and thought-provoking performance and education opportunities, enabling the Denver and Colorado community to be engaged, inspired, and connected through the performing arts. The Newman Center is home to the Lamont School of Music, Denver University Theatre Department, the Newman Center Presents series, over 150 hosted events, and approximately 500 performances each year.
